SCENE—Peter Gillane's Cottage near to Killala, in 1798. "One night I had a dream, almost as distinct as a vision, of a cottage where there was well-being and firelight, and talk of a marriage, and into the midst of that cottage there came an old woman in a long cloak. She was Ireland herself, that Kathleen ni Houlihan, for whom so many songs have been sung, and for whose sake so many have gone to their death. I thought if I could write this out as a little play I could make others see my dream as I had seen it."—W. B. Yeats.
