The Play produced by LENNOX ROBINSON.

NOTE.—In this dance play I have brought together "The Only Jealousy of Emer" and another Irish story. At the opening Cuchullain is shown fighting the waves in a frenzy of grief for he has killed his son. Then we see him lying in a bed, a seemingly drowned man, a tended by his wife Emer and another. He is not dead but entranced. The Goddess Fand who loves him comes seeking to entice him away; she is defeated by the love of Emer and Cuchullain awakes. The play close, with Fand's dance among the waves, the dance of her despair.—W.B.Y.

The Orchestra, under the Direction of Dr. J. F. LARCHET, will perform the following selections:

Overture	"Rosamunde"	Schubert (1797-1828)
Fantasia	"Samson and Delilah"	Saint-Saëns (1835-1922)
Excerpt op. 13	Adagio Pathétique	Beethoven (1770-1827)
Zwei Lieder	{ 1. Wiegenlied 2. Feldeinsamkeit }	Brahms (1833-1897)
