Bridget Gillane, his Wife { } Maire O'Neill
Michael Gillane { } his Sons { } J. M. Kerrigan
Patrick Gillane { } U. Wright
Della Cabel { } Eileen O'Doherty

SCENE Peter Gillane's Cottage near Killala in 1798

"One night I had a dream, almost as distinct as a vision, of a cottage where there was well-being and firelight and talk of marriage, and into the midst of that cottage there came an old woman, in a long cloak. She was Ireland herself, that Kathleen ni Houlihan, for whom so many songs have been sung, and for whose sake so many have gone to their death. I thought if I could write this out as a little play I could make others see my dream as I had seen it."—W. B. Yeats.
